BRAND GUIDELINES · VERSION 1.0 · NOVEMBER 2026

DelChaos

Run your people without the chaos.

The idea

DelChaos is HR and workforce software that a company owns outright: attendance, payroll, leave, onboarding and chat in one system, with the full source code. The logo is a person standing on the letters d and c. The two letters share one stroke, and the person is the stem of the d. Order is built from people, not from rules.

What the mark says

- The person is the employee the product exists for
- d and c touch: the name is one shape
- The collar and tie keep it professional, the round letters keep it human
- Shared stroke: everything in the system is connected

How the brand feels

- Calm: lots of space, one bright colour
- Sharp: exact geometry, plain words
- Human: round forms, people first
- Playful: a little wit about the word "chaos"

The logo

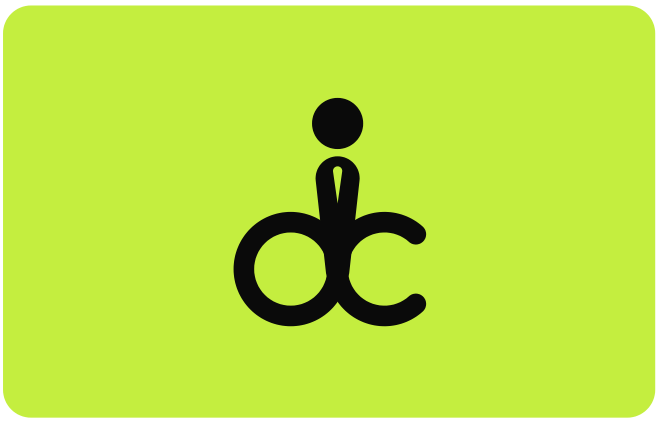

Use the full-colour version wherever it fits. The person is lime; the letters are white on dark backgrounds and black on light ones. Always use the supplied files. Never retype or redraw it.

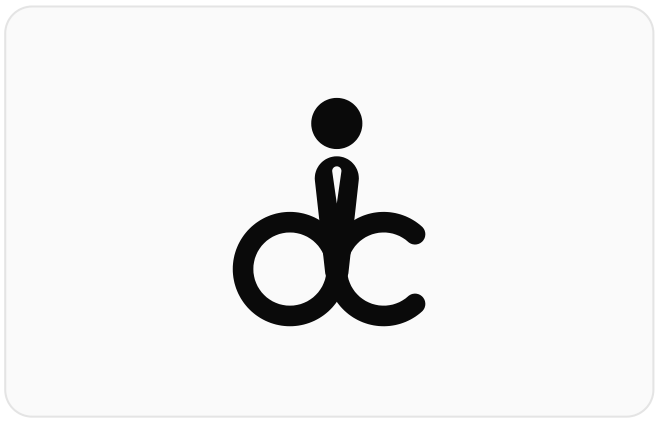

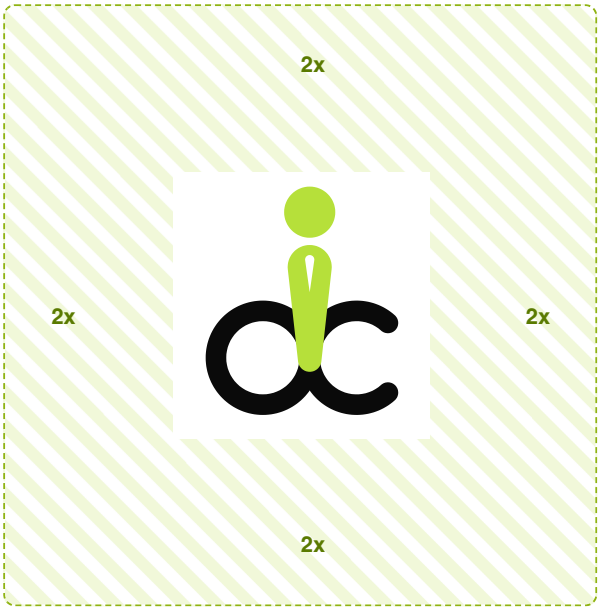

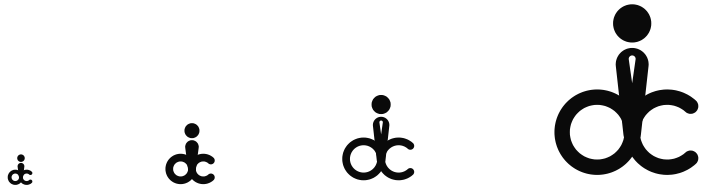

VERSION	USE IT FOR
Horizontal	Primary. Website header, documents, email, slides.
Stacked	Square and tall spaces: posters, covers, signage.
Symbol	When the name is already nearby, or space is tight.
Small-size cut	16 to 47 px: favicons, app icons, avatars. Heavier, no tie.
One-colour black / white	Print, stamps, fax, embroidery, any single-colour job.

Clear space and minimum size

Let x be the thickness of the letter stroke. Keep at least 2x free on every side, with nothing else inside that zone. The zone scales with the logo.

VERSION	MINIMUM ON SCREEN	MINIMUM IN PRINT
Horizontal lockup	120 px wide	30 mm wide
Stacked lockup	96 px wide	25 mm wide
Full symbol (with tie)	48 px tall	12 mm tall
Small-size cut	16 px tall	5 mm tall

Colour

Three colours carry the brand: black, white and lime. Lime is used sparingly, mostly on the person. The values below are the ones already in the website. CMYK is a straight conversion: confirm with a printed proof before a large run.

Ink
#0A0A0A
RGB 10, 10, 10
CMYK 0 · 0 · 0 · 96
Letters on light, backgrounds in dark mode, text.

Lime

Light-mode page background.

Graphite

Mist

RGB 161, 161, 161
CMYK 0 · 0 · 0 · 37

Approved pairings

Contrast ratios are measured. Lime on white is too weak to read, so on light pages the lime person is a shape only. Use black-only for anything small, and deep lime when lime must act as text or a line.

Backgrounds

On photographs, place the white or black one-colour logo over a calm, even area. If the area is busy, set the logo on a solid Ink or Lime tile.

Typography

The wordmark is set in Geist Semibold and supplied as outlines. The website uses Geist Variable for everything else. Geist is open source (SIL Open Font License), free for any use.

What not to do

The logo is a precise drawing. Do not change it.

✕ Stretched or squashed

✕ Rotated

✕ Off-palette colour

✕ Shadow or glow

✕ Low contrast

✕ Busy background

- Do not rearrange the person, the d or the c, or resize them separately
- Do not remove the tie on the full symbol: use the small-size cut instead
- Do not use the lime person on white at small sizes: use black-only
- Do not type "DelChaos" yourself and place it beside the symbol: use the lockup files

Voice

Plain, warm and a little dry. Talk about people and work, not "solutions". One joke about chaos is enough.

Tagline

Run your people without the chaos.

Before you ship anything

- Is it one of the supplied files, unchanged?
- Is there 2x clear space on every side?
- Is it large enough (see page 4)?
- Does the colour pairing appear on page 6?
- Trademark: no clearance search has been done. Run one before filing or launching widely.
